

MCQS ON EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY CTD

1. Which of the following is a key aspect of Rationalism in education?
 - A) Emphasis on practical experience
 - B) Focus on individual freedom
 - C) Importance of reason and intellect
 - D) Prioritization of emotional intelligence
2. Rationalism in education emphasizes the development of:
 - A) Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
 - B) Creativity and imagination
 - C) Social and emotional learning
 - D) Physical and motor skills
3. According to Rationalism, knowledge is primarily acquired through:
 - A) Sense experience and observation
 - B) Reason and intellect
 - C) Social and cultural norms
 - D) Emotional intuition
4. Rationalism in education focuses on the study of:
 - A) Contemporary issues and problems
 - B) Classical works and timeless truths
 - C) Practical skills and vocational training
 - D) Personal growth and self-actualization
5. Which of the following philosophers is associated with Rationalism?
 - A) Immanuel Kant
 - B) Jean-Paul Sartre
 - C) John Dewey

D) B.F. Skinner

6. Existentialism in education emphasizes the importance of:

- A) Individual freedom and choice
- B) Social responsibility and conformity
- C) Emotional intelligence and empathy
- D) Intellectual curiosity and inquiry

7. According to Existentialism, the purpose of education is to:

- A) Prepare students for a specific career or vocation
- B) Help students discover their own meaning and purpose
- C) Transmit cultural heritage and traditional values
- D) Develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills

8. Existentialism in education focuses on the development of:

- A) Practical skills and technical knowledge
- B) Social and emotional learning
- C) Autonomy and self-directed learning
- D) Critical thinking and intellectual curiosity

9. Which of the following is a key aspect of Existentialism in education?

- A) Emphasis on standardized testing and assessment
- B) Focus on individualized learning plans
- C) Importance of personal responsibility and agency
- D) Prioritization of group work and collaboration

10. Which of the following philosophers is associated with Existentialism?

- A) Jean-Paul Sartre
- B) Martin Heidegger
- C) John Dewey

D) B.F. Skinner

11. Pragmatism in education emphasizes the importance of:

- A) Practical experience and hands-on learning
- B) Intellectual curiosity and theoretical knowledge
- C) Social and emotional learning
- D) Standardized testing and assessment

12. According to Pragmatism, knowledge is primarily acquired through:

- A) Sense experience and observation
- B) Reason and intellect
- C) Practical application and experimentation
- D) Emotional intuition

13. Pragmatism in education focuses on the development of:

- A) Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- B) Creativity and imagination
- C) Practical skills and technical knowledge
- D) Social and emotional learning

14. Which of the following is a key aspect of Pragmatism in education?

- A) Emphasis on individualized learning plans
- B) Focus on group work and collaboration
- C) Importance of practical application and experimentation
- D) Prioritization of theoretical knowledge

15. Which of the following philosophers is associated with Pragmatism?

- A) John Dewey
- B) William James
- C) Charles Sanders Peirce

D) B.F. Skinner

16. Behaviourism in education emphasizes the importance of:

- A) Emotional intelligence and empathy
- B) Social and emotional learning
- C) Practical skills and technical knowledge
- D) Observable behavior and measurable outcomes

17. According to Behaviourism, learning is primarily driven by:

- A) Intrinsic motivation and personal interest
- B) Extrinsic rewards and punishments
- C) Social and cultural norms
- D) Emotional intuition

18. Behaviourism in education focuses on the development of:

- A) Critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- B) Creativity and imagination
- C) Practical skills and technical knowledge
- D) Desirable behaviors and habits

21. Which of the following is a key aspect of Behaviourism in education?

- A) Emphasis on individualized learning plans
- B) Focus on group work and collaboration
- C) Importance of reinforcement and feedback
- D) Prioritization of theoretical knowledge

20. Which of the following psychologists is associated with Behaviourism?

- A) B.F. Skinner
- B) John B. Watson
- C) Edward Thorndike

D) Albert Bandura

21. Which philosophy emphasizes hands-on learning and experimentation in primary education?

- a) Essentialism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Humanism
- d) Constructivism

22. Which philosophy focuses on developing students' social and emotional skills in primary education?

- a) Humanism
- b) Essentialism
- c) Progressivism
- d) Social Reconstructionism

23. Which philosophy emphasizes the importance of basic skills and knowledge in primary education?

- a) Essentialism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Humanism
- d) Constructivism

24. Which philosophy encourages student-centered learning and autonomy in primary education?

- a) Constructivism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Humanism
- d) Essentialism

25. Which philosophy aims to prepare students for social responsibility and activism in primary education?

- a) Social Reconstructionism
- b) Humanism
- c) Progressivism
- d) Essentialism

26. Which philosophy is criticized for being too focused on individualism and neglecting social responsibility?

- a) Humanism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Essentialism
- d) Constructivism

27. Which philosophy is limited by its emphasis on traditional teaching methods and neglect of creativity?

- a) Essentialism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Humanism
- d) Constructivism

28. Which philosophy is challenged by the difficulty of implementing student-centered learning in large classrooms?

- a) Constructivism
- b) Progressivism
- c) Humanism
- d) Essentialism

29. Which philosophy is criticized for neglecting the importance of basic skills and knowledge?

- a) Progressivism
- b) Humanism
- c) Constructivism
- d) Essentialism

30. Which philosophy is limited by its focus on social activism and neglect of academic rigor?

- a) Social Reconstructionism
- b) Humanism
- c) Progressivism
- d) Essentialism